Dear John:

Thank you for your membership in the American Public Power Association. Your support enables us to provide a strong collective voice on the many issues impacting your utility and your customers. Your utility's membership is up for renewal, so I am enclosing your dues invoice.

While representing public power's interests on federal legislative and regulatory issues is a top priority, your membership gives your team the help they need to succeed in today's rapidly evolving electric utility industry. I encourage you to visit PublicPower.org to explore all that we have to offer, but I've listed a few of our top resources below:

- members-only reports, surveys, and statistical analysis available on PublicPower.org;
- award-winning Public Power magazine and Public Power Daily e-newsletter;
- utility programs, like the Reliable Public Power Provider (RP<sub>3</sub>) program that helps you benchmark your operations against industry peers and gain valuable recognition for your efforts;
- utility operations resources, like the eReliability Tracker – a web-based service to track and analyze your outage and restoration data;
- discounted industry-specific education and training through the American Public Power Association's Academy;
- discounts on publications and software through the Association's Product Store;
- more than two dozen peer-driven electronic discussion forums – where answers to your questions are only a click away; and
- public power's research and grant program, Demonstration of Energy & Efficiency Developments (DEED). Join DEED to access grants up to $125,000 and scholarships up to $5,000 annually. Learn more at PublicPower.org/DEED.

Please contact me (202/467-2901; suekelly@PublicPower.org) or Jeff Haas, Vice President, Membership & Strategic Development (202/467-2953; JHaas@PublicPower.org) if you have questions or suggestions on how we can better serve you.

We look forward to continuing to work with you on the critical issues facing our industry.

Sincerely,
