The President asked if any Council Members wished to be heard.

Councilman Franceschini stated doesn't like to give this report however today there were 732 confirmed cases in Vineland of COVID-19. Many of these are attributed from the Thanksgiving holiday. Vaccine will be here soon and the Health Dept. will be discussing it soon. He advised everyone to wear their masks. It's all any of us can do until the City receives the vaccine. He thanked President Spinelli for his leadership over the past four years.

Dr. Arthur wanted to thank President Spinelli for his leadership and also for appointing her and getting her to this seat and looks forward to further collaboration with those on Council. She stated for everyone to please wear your masks and wash your hands. She had a relative recently pass from COVID-19 and the virus is no joke. She urged everyone to practice these safety measures.

Councilman Acosta congratulated President Spinelli of four years of fine leadership and also on being re-elected. Congratulated those who retired this year. He wished all the Vineland residents for happy holidays.

Councilman Vargas congratulated all the volunteers and kids that came to the PAL Christmas Party. He stated it went very well considering the conditions everyone is experiencing. He congratulated the retirees and mentioned the City lost some good people from retirements and the Rotary Club on 100 years. Lastly he thanked President Spinelli for his leadership and that he learned a lot from him.

President Spinelli thanked the Rotary Club for 100 years of community service. He congratulated those retirees for this evening. He also thanked Council and stated this was a great Council to work with. He wished everyone a Merry Christmas, to please stay safe and follow the COVID guidelines and bid his farewell as President of Vineland City Council.
